AN ALL DAY WORKSHOP

PRESENTED BY

JESSICA MINAHAN

8:30AM -2:30 PM

NORTHERN RI COLLABORATIVE

640 GEORGE WASHINGTON HWY, LINCOLN, RI

Jessica Minahan, MEd, BCBA, is a board certified behavior analyst and special educator and a consultant to schools nationwide (www.jessicaminahan.com). Jessica has over 17 years of experience supporting students who exhibit challenging behavior in urban public school systems. She is an adjunct professor at Boston University and a blogger for The Huffington Post, as well as the author of The Behavior Code: A Practical Guide to Understanding and Teaching the Most Challenging Students, with Nancy Rappaport (Harvard Education Press, 2012) and of The Behavior Code Companion: Strategies, Tools, and Interventions for Supporting Students with Anxiety-Related or Oppositional Behaviors (Harvard Education Press, 2014).

The Student Behavioral Health Network is a group of educators, school social workers, psychologists, support staff and community providers who work directly in schools with students to promote and support behavioral health wellness as these students transition from school to post secondary education and training, employment and independent living.
